

Overview of the Rohingya Crisis: Bangladesh Emergency Response

The recent violence in Myanmar's Rakhine State has led to widespread movement of the Rohingya population both within Myanmar and across the border into Bangladesh. The newly arrived Rohingya Refugees in Bangladesh live in extremely precarious and deteriorating conditions, requiring an immediate and comprehensive scale-up of the relief response. Given the current volatile situation, the numbers continue to increase.

FOOD SECURITY UPDATES:

- WFP with its partners has started distribution of the FSS coordinated full Food Package for 2 weeks ration starting since 7 October 2017.
- Package includes 25 kg rice, 4kg pulse, 2 liter vegetable oil, 0.5 kg iodine salt and 1 kg sugar.
- Since 25 August, 60,795 (12,316 PLW and 48,479 Children under 5) received a targeted food assistance

KEY FACTS AND FIGURES

