

Roles and Responsibilities

- Commitment to Humanitarian principles
- Participation in FSLC response planning and implementation
- Active participation in the FSLC coordination efforts

FSLC Membership Categories

	Commitment	Who	Roles	Responsibilities
Active Partners	Medium	NNGOs and INGOs having reported activities in the FSLC's 5W over the current and/or the last year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Implement the FSL HRP in line with the 2024-2026 FSLC Strategy, applying the cluster's guidelines on geographical prioritization, beneficiary targeting and response package harmonization, as well as recommendations on complementarities and synergies (including with other clusters). Use their contingency capacity to respond to FSL needs in the event of sudden shocks. Contribute to the response coordination by sharing information and actively participating in FSLC meetings at national and subnational level. Participate in strategic and programmatic consultations, lessons-learned exercises and CCPM workshops. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nominate a technical staff to represent the organization at (and contribute to) FSLC meetings/consultations/workshops. Report FSL activities in the 5W. Contribute to FSLC products (advocacy notes, experience sharing...). Elect the SAG members and the FSLC Co-lead agencies Co-lead on FSLC taskforce and technical working groups
Core Cluster Members	High	CLAs, SAG members, FSLC Co-lead agencies, Government	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In addition to fulfilling the same responsibilities as Active Partners in an exemplary manner, they also: Participate in cluster leadership and decision-making processes, providing strategic direction, technical expertise and policy guidance in agricultural and food security programming. Contribute to resource mobilization efforts. Co-lead FSLC Strategic and technical consultations/workshops. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Advise and validate FSLC strategies. Take the lead of FSLC taskforces and working groups.
Observers and Associate Members	Low	Non-Active Partner organizations that want to share information with the FSLC. (Non-active partners, Donor group, ICRC/Red Cross, government line ministries etc)	Participate in consultations and discussions but remain neutral on decision-making.

application and renewal process

- Process to become a member
 - Send an email to the FSL Cluster Coordinators with:
 - An expression of interest in becoming a member of the FSLC
 - The organization's complete profile (the list of requested information will be shared by the FSLC)
 - Cluster Coordinators review the request.
 - FSLC will send an approval email or contact the organization for additional details.
- Membership renewal
 - Membership list maintained by FSLC IMOs
 - Partner Presence Map (Active Partners) updated monthly
 - Annual verification