FSC partners assisted 152,327 beneficiaries with seasonal input related activities in April. Cumulatively, for the 2019 Gu season, 288,265 people have been assisted representing 17% of target.

As the seasonal cumulative assistance remains low, the cluster urges partners to scale up responses. The support for livestock assets protection is urgently needed to keep livestock alive and produce milk, meat and income.

Photo Credit: FAO Somalia

NB: IPC Map based on Post Dyré FSNAU assessment and is revised based on the seasonal assessment.