

Risk Levels

Warrap

Localized violence between communities in Tonj North and East resulted in civilian displacement the the looting of food assistance in Marial-Lou. Cross-border raids into Lakes are also likely to continue.

Unity

Tensions persist over local level appointments in Leer and Koch. Insecurity in Mayom due to the presence of multiple armed groups is likely to increase in the upcoming dry season.

Upper Nile

Tensions remain high between Padang Dinka and Shiluk in Malakal. The situation also remains tense in Maban and Nasir due to clashes between various armed groups and militias.

Jonglei

Small-scale raids are like to continue in central Jonglei and Pibor. Tensions between local authorities in Fangak led to fighting and several casualties.

Eastern Equatoria

Road-side attacks and lootings are likely to persist along main roads. Tensions between humanitarians and the Monyomiji have calmed but could resurface.

Central Equatoria

Fighting between the SSPDF and NAS is likely to continue, as well as road-side attacks on major roads. The departure of cattle keepers, localized violence amongst the Mundari and the IDP presence are also leading to tensions.

Lakes

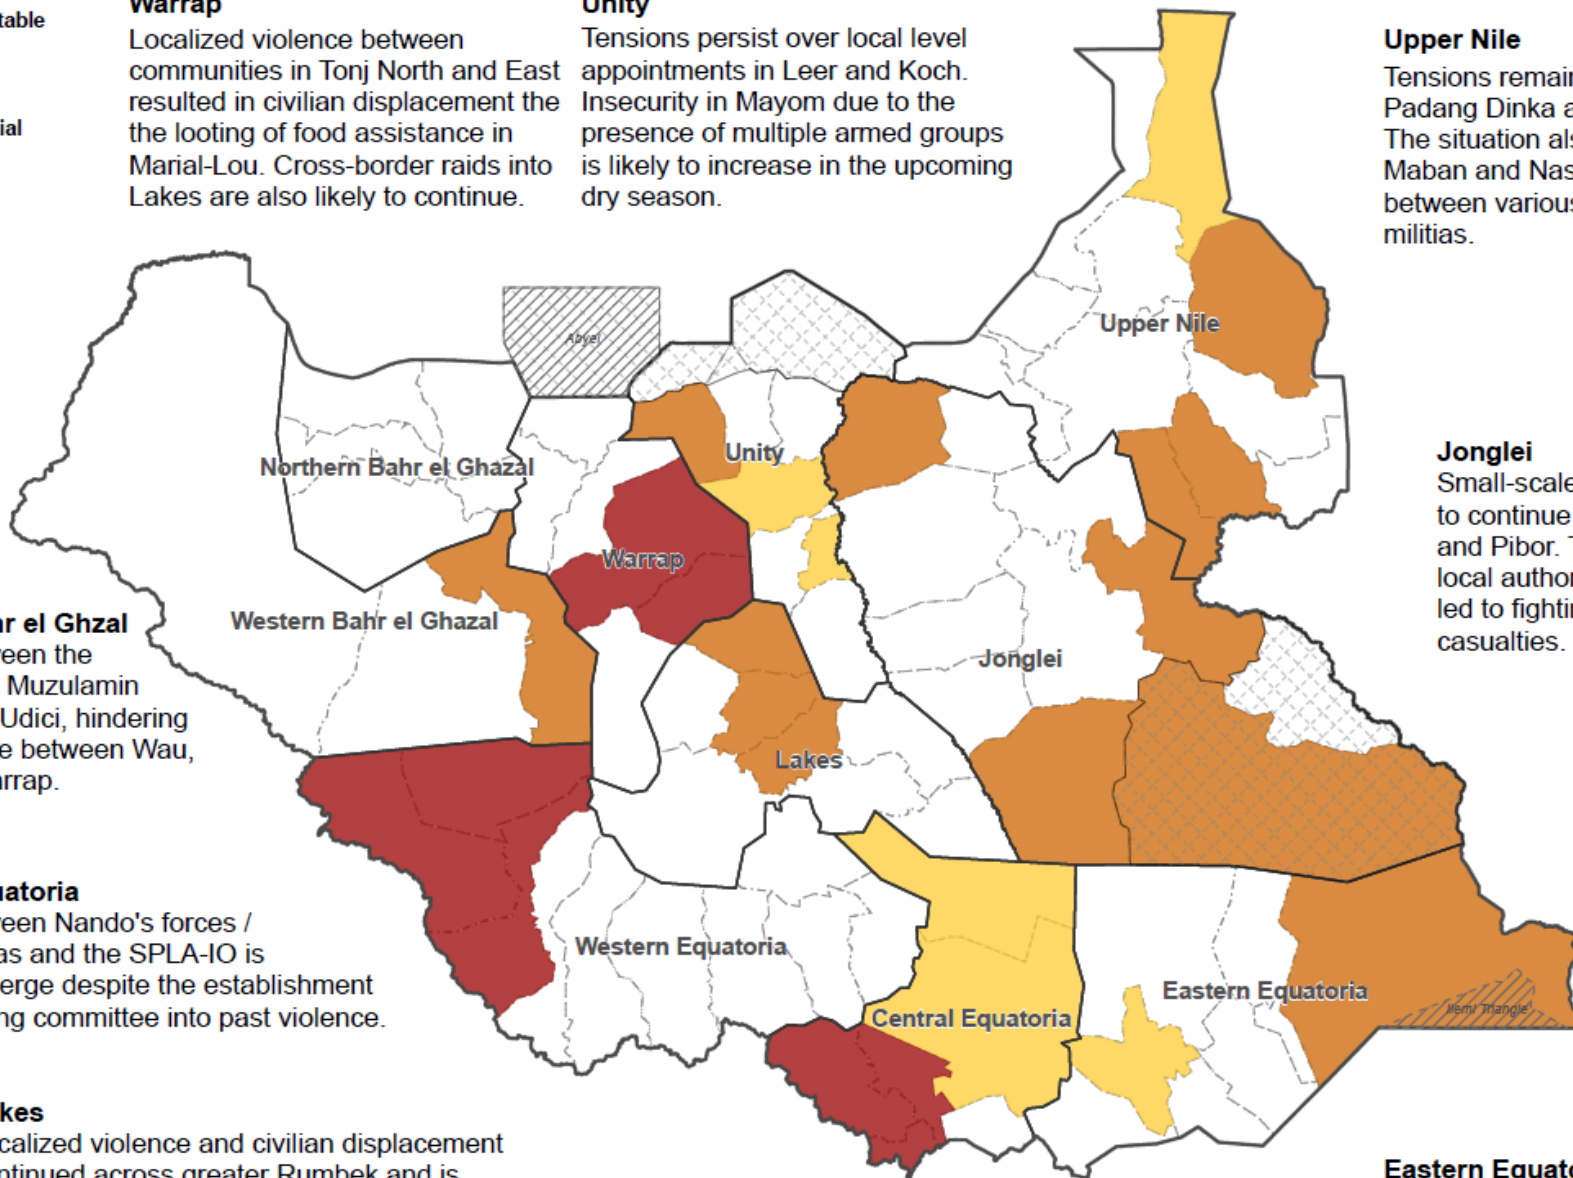

Localized violence and civilian displacement continued across greater Rumbek and is likely to continue. A local peace conference in Cueibet has helped reduce tensions between communities.

Western Bahr el Ghzal

Fighting between the SPLA-IO and Muzulamin took place in Udici, hindering the supply line between Wau, Awiel and Warrap.

Western Equatoria

Fighting between Nando's forces / Azande militias and the SPLA-IO is likely to reemerge despite the establishment of a fact-finding committee into past violence.

Greater Equatoria:

- Central Equatoria:
 - Intra-Mundari violence: affecting Luri, Amadi, Juba; large-scale displacement; potential for spill-over into Lainya, Yei, Mangala and for inclusion Bor Dinka
 - Persistent clashes between NAS and SSPDF around Yei
 - Persistent roadside attacks on major roads
- Western Equatoria:
 - Fighting between General Nando's forces/Azande militias and the SPLA-IO/Balanda militias last month likely to re-emerge
 - Return forces loyal to Nando last week has increased tensions (attack Yambio prison)
 - Potential for Western Opposition to be affected by SPLA-IO fracturing
- Eastern Equatoria:
 - Tensions between humanitarians and Monyomijo have calmed but could resurface
 - Localised violence between Taposa and Turkana
 - Persistent roadside robberies and attacks
