Together with Cooperating Partners, WFP ensures that the following COVID-19 preventive measures are in place:

1. Decongestion at distribution points to minimize physical contact

   Social Distancing at distribution in Northern Bahr el Ghazal. Photo: WFP/Solomon Tilahun

   Guidance on suggested site set-up shared by WFP to staff and implementing partners.

   Social Distancing measures through chalk floor markings at Cash Disbursement in Majok Noon. Photo: WFP/ Malong Garang

2.  Provision of hand wash facilities including constant supply of water/soap

   Crowd-controlled handwashing points were installed before the entrance to distribution sites. Photo: WFP/Theresa Piorr

   Supervised handwashing station at the entrance of a distribution in NBEG. Photo: WFP/Solomon Tilahun
3. Appropriate sensitization on hygiene practices to the beneficiaries

Sensitization on COVID-19 preventive measures in the waiting room before a cash distribution under the Juba Urban Project in Buluk, Juba. Photo: WFP/Musa Mahadi

Key sensitization messages (icon-based and in local vernacular) on banners displayed at a general distribution site in Juba. Photo: WFP/Theresa Piorr

4. WFP staff and Cooperating Partners wearing masks and gloves at all times

Cooperating partners World Vision International (WVI) and Galaxy teams wear masks and gloves at all times during cash distribution. Photo: WFP/Musa Mahadi

5. Cash entitlements in individual envelopes

A WFP Juba Urban Project beneficiary receives his cash assistance through the cooperating partners World Vision International (WVI) and Galaxy teams in Buluk, Juba. Photo: WFP/Musa Mahadi

6. Adequate staff to monitor social distancing and hygiene practices during the entire distribution process

WFP cooperating partners World Vision International (WVI) and Galaxy teams assist in ensuring hygiene

Crowd controlling at a general distribution in a Protection of Civilian site in Juba. Photo: WFP/Theresa