The Food Security Sector, in partnership with 28 partners, delivered food assistance in 34 camps and in Konapara (Nomansland) to 199,908 refugee households (903,027 individuals), of which 89,121 households (404,486 individuals) had access to food through 10 e-voucher outlets. As a top-up of the in-kind food distribution, 43,052 households (193,734 individuals) have also received complementary food vouchers (CFV) for 13 different food items. Livelihoods programs have supported 264,550 people in the host communities in Ukhiya and Teknaf with about 20,000 new beneficiaries in June as a result of the increase in skills, development and training activities, especially horticulture.
