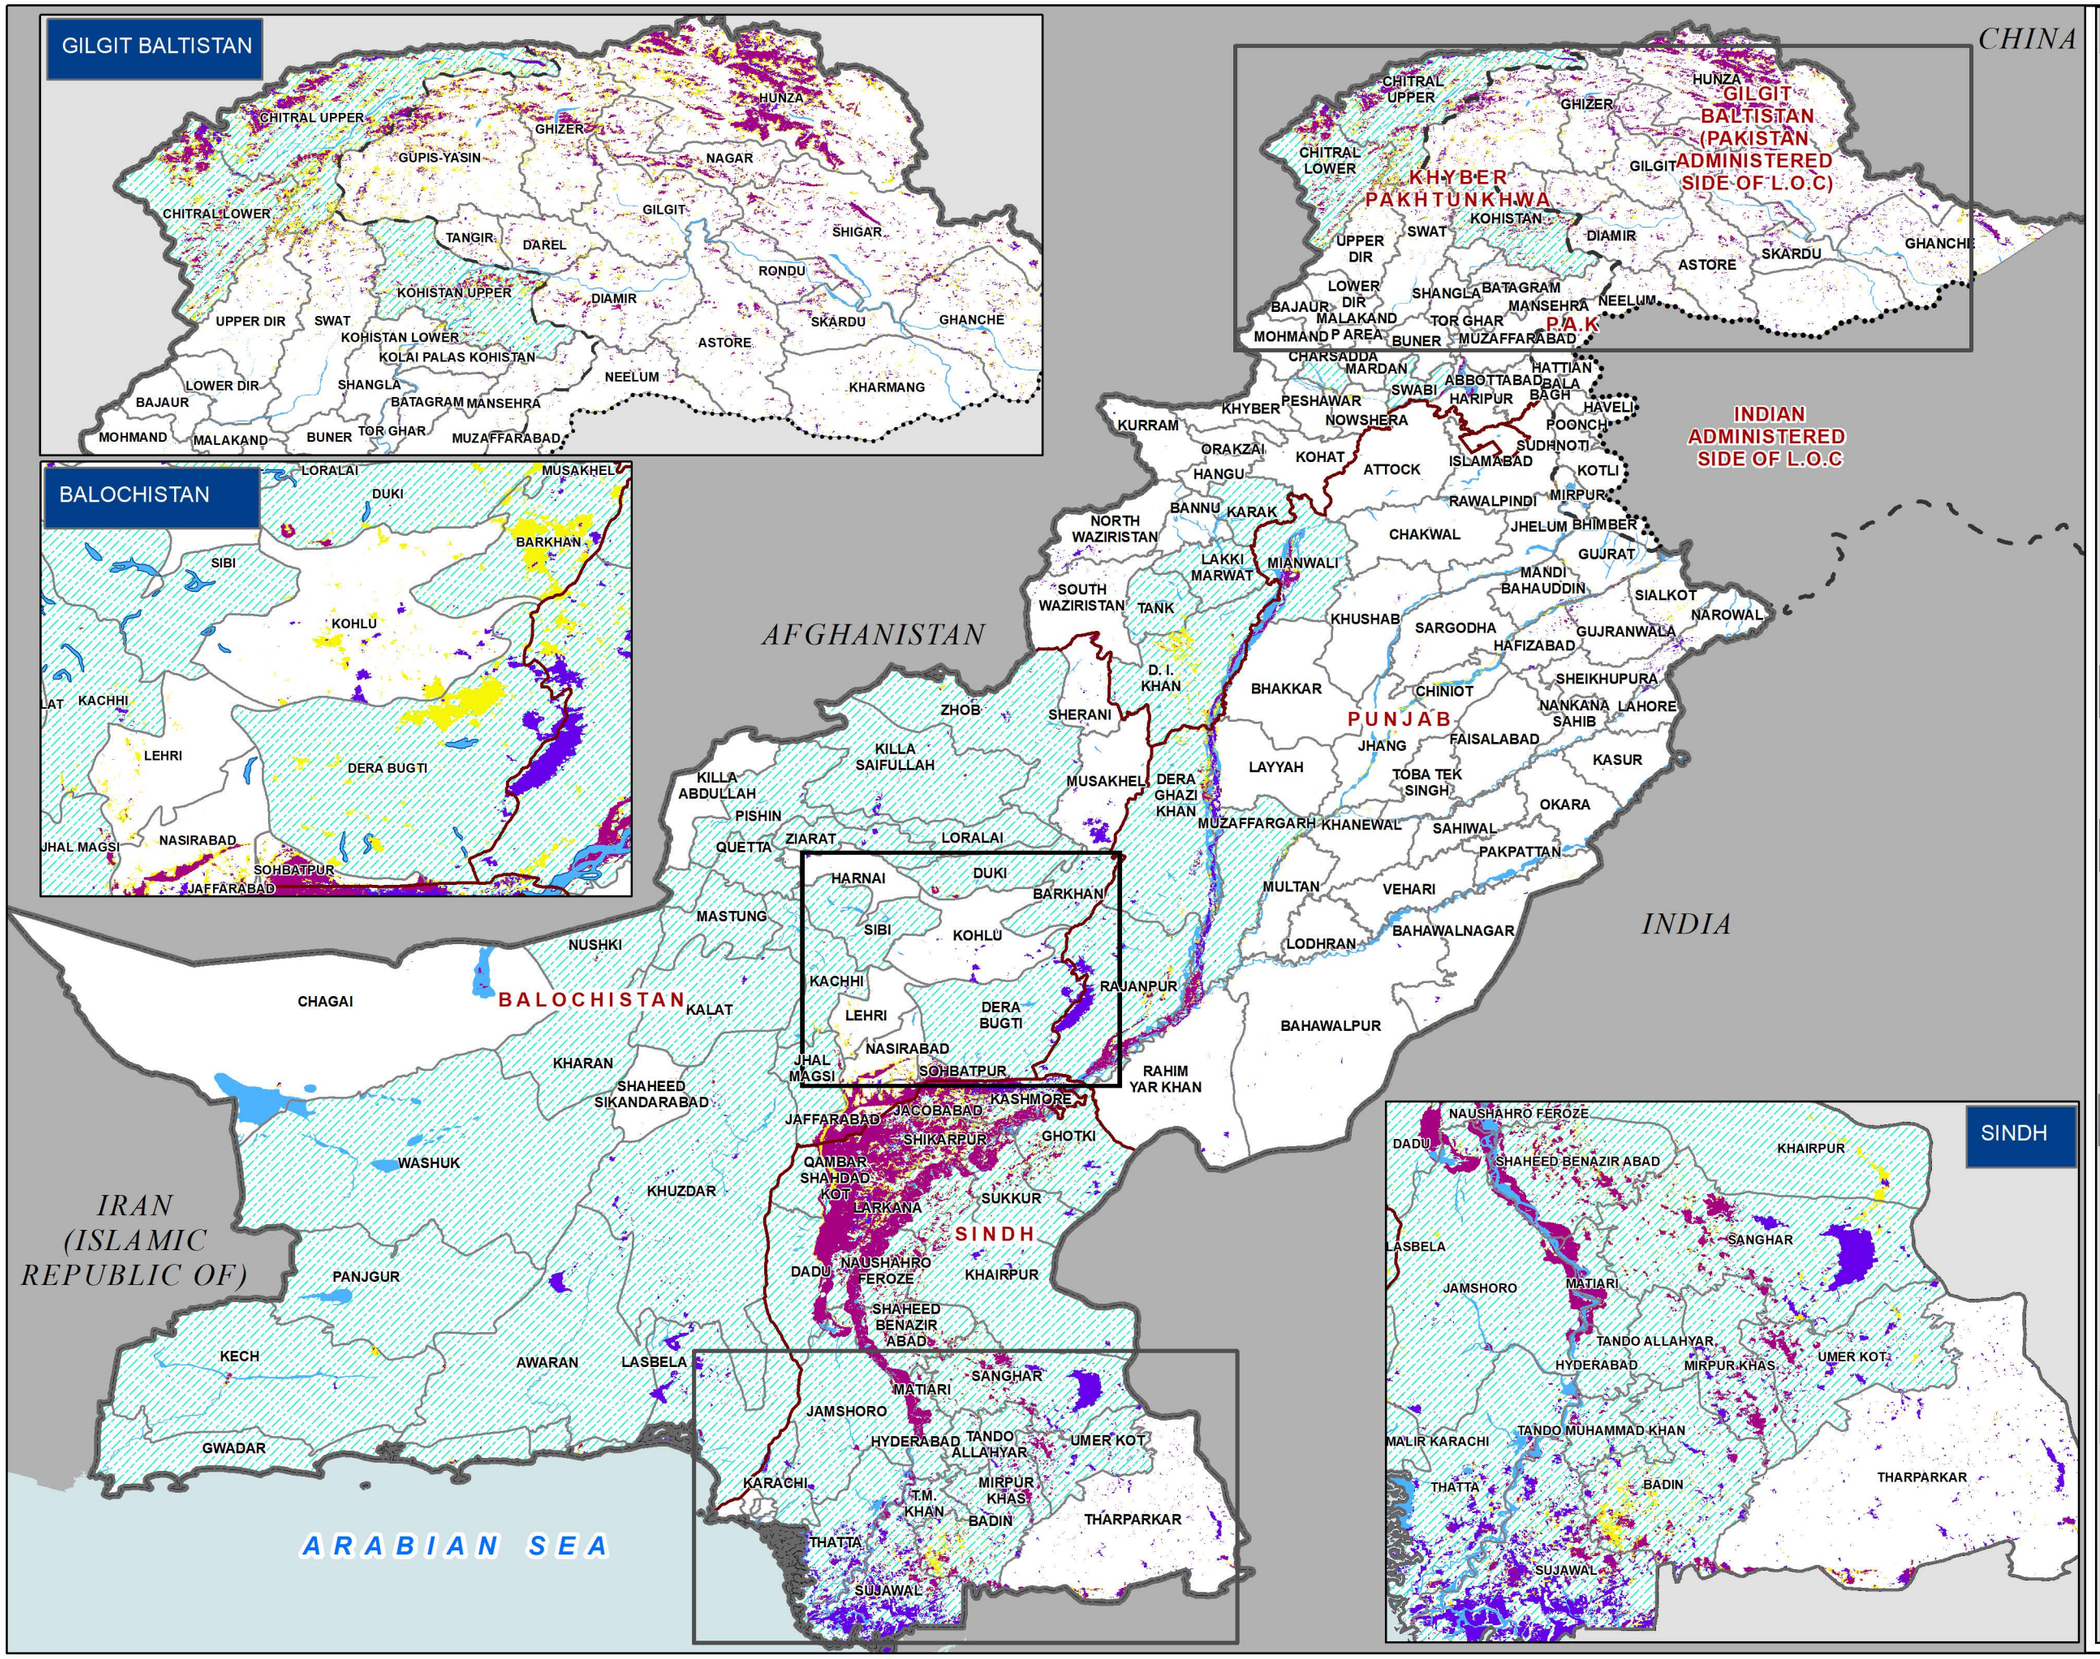
Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

FLOOD SITUATION MAPPING - MONSOON RAINS IN PAKISTAN
05 SEPTEMBER 2022



Map Legend

ADMINISTRATIVE LIMITS

- Country
- Province
- District

HYDROLOGY

- Satellite based observations of flood water (1 Sep-5 Sep 2022)
- Satellite based observations of flood water (1 Aug-31 Aug 2022)
- Satellite based observations of flood water (8 Jul-31 Jul 2022)
- Water body

AFFECTED AREAS

- Notified Flood Calamity Affected Districts

Data Sources

FAO, GAUL, MODIS, NDMA & PDMAs,

About Map

The map shows the flood extent from a period of 8 July to 05 September 2022 dervied from the satellite based observations. It also reflects the flood calamity affected districts.

Disclaimer

The boundaries and names shown and the designation used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Dotted line represents approximately the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir agreed upon by India and Pakistan. The final status of Jammu and Kashmir has not yet been agreed upon by the parties.

Map scale and Datum

Datum: WGS 84

N

0 50 100 150 200 250

Kilometers

Prepared by: GIS team FAO Pakistan

Date Updated: 05 Sep 2022