Guide on compost making

by

Abubakar Ahmed (Seed System Specialist)
Agriculture and Livelihoods abubakar.ahmed@crs.org
What is compost

• A mixture of decaying organic matter used as a fertilizer
Materials used to make a compost

• Compost is usually made by up of plant material,
  ✓ leaves,
  ✓ Grass clippings,
  ✓ Vegetable peels,
  ✓ Rotten plant
  ✓ Weeds eliminated from the farm
Benefits of enrich compost

• A cheap source of fertilizer.
• Compost reduces greenhouse gases
• Compost improves soil quality
• Compost helps clean up contaminated soil
• Compost helps control erosion
Things not to put in your compost

• Leather, plastic and robber
• Glass, aluminium or metals
• Synthetic fertilizer:
• Dog, Cat and Human poop:
Steps in making a pit compost

• Pick a perfect spot and dig a hole for your pit compost.
• Chop your composting materials finely
• Cover your compost with soil and add a water for proper decomposition
• Alternate soil layers with composting materials
• Compost will be ready for use after 3-4 months
Compost cycle

Pit compost