

Livestock Technical Working Group Meeting August 31, 2023

Agenda:

- PPR and Rabies Eradication Strategy – Dr. Matur, Ministry of Livestock
- South Sudan Pest des Petits Ruminants (PPR) Eradication Strategy Programme Updates – Rogina, FAO
- Gender sensitive and climate smart infrastructure in Greater Kapoeta counties – Wilson, FAO
- AOB.
- Update on LEGS simplification exercise – FAO

Development of the agenda

1. PPR and Rabies Eradication Strategy	Next Steps / Action points
The National Strategy Plan (NSP) for Peste des Petits Ruminants (PPR) Control and Eradication was established and validated in 2015 The vision and goal to eradicate PPR by 2030, to improve productivity and production of small ruminants , Livelihoods of poor rural communities ,Economic Growth and increase the GDP of the Countries. Link to the presentation	FAO will follow up with the ministry of livestock on the progress of the eradication implementation
2. South Sudan Pest des Petits Ruminants (PPR) Eradication Strategy Programme Updates	Next Steps / Action points
Peste des Petits ruminants (PPR) or goat plague is an acute, highly infectious small ruminants associated with high morbidity and mortality that can kill 80-90 % of the herds, the disease is more server in goat with mortality that can reach 80-90 of infected herds The disease is one of the priority diseases indicated in the FAO-WOAH Global Framework for the Progressive Control of Trans-boundary Animal Diseases (GF-TADs). South Sudan developed its own control & eradication strategy 2015 with the aim to eradicate the disease by 2030 Link to the presentation	FAO will update on the progress of the project.
3. Gender sensitive and climate smart infrastructure in Greater Kapoeta counties
The presentation focused on the FAO Building Resilience for food and Nutrition Security.	FAO will share lessons learn with other

Link to the presentation	humanitarian partners in Kapoeta as the area is facing prolonged dry spells
4. AOB
The FSL Cluster asked FAO to provide an update on the LEGS simplification process, FAO will update accordingly in the next regular meeting	Next regular meeting scheduled for 28 th September 2023