Persistent instability in northern and central Mali, violence and insecurity across the Lake Chad Basin and the impact of the conflict in the Central African Republic continue to cause population displacements and hinder the return of displaced people. Around 3.6 million people have been forced to flee their homes to other localities or across borders, and 2.3 million having returned to or near their homes are struggling to rebuild their lives.

Refugees

1.14 million

Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs)

2.48 million

Returnees (former IDPs and Refugees)*

2.29 million

*Also including returnees fleeing from CAR and Nigeria who remain internally displaced in their home countries (Cameroon, Chad, Niger). Senegal figures include 3k asylum seekers.
