WFP
Cash-Based Transfers (CBT)

Food Security Sector
14 January 2020

Masahiro MATSUMOTO
Programme Policy Officer
CBT Coordinator
What is Cash Based Transfer?

The means to transfer food assistance to beneficiaries.

Transfer Modalities

- In-kind
- Cash
- Vouchers

CBT is neither a project nor an objective.
A big change in WFP: From food aid to food assistance

Food Assistance via CBTs
History of CBT in Nigeria - 1

April 2016

Mobile Money
Unconditional Food Assistance
Borno & Yobe States

September 2016

Legal Agreement
Access Bank & Airtel

March 2017

Electronic Voucher
Unconditional Food Assistance
Borno & Yobe States

History of CBT launched in Nigeria in 2016
History of CBT in Nigeria - 2

January 2018

- Mobile Money
- Nutrition – INP/MSP
  - Borno State

June 2018

- Mobile Money
- Livelihoods
  - Borno State

October 2018

- E-Voucher
- Unconditional Food Assistance
  - Monguno
  - Borno State
January 2019

Mobile Money
Livelihoods
Yobe State

May 2019

E – Voucher
Unconditional Food Assistance
Ngala
Borno State

June 2019

Mobile Money
Unconditional Food Assistance
Stadium Camp - MMC
Borno State
CBT Business Process Model
Multi-Sectorial Capacity Assessments
Multi-Sectorial Capacity Analysis

1. Needs assessment
2. Sectorial capacity analysis
3. Transfer modality selection

Activities:
- Gender and Protection Government Policies
- Cooperating Partner Capacity
- Supply Chain at Local Markets
- Financial Sector Assessment
- IT & Communication Capacity
- Field Security Assessment

Output: Intervention Scope
Comparative Analysis
Cost-Efficiency and Effectiveness
Transfer Modality Selection

Activities:
- Cost-efficiency
- Cost-effectiveness
- Other Factors

Output:
- Risk analysis
- Consultations
- Modality Selection

Needs Assessment & Response Analysis
1. Needs assessment
2. Sectoral capacity analysis
3. Transfer modality selection